IMPORTANT - Please Read:

Note 1: One of the conditions attached to the offer of a licence is that during its term, the applicant must be able to provide evidence that he/she is self employed and is able and does take full part in the fishery.

The Department of Inland Revenue and the Department of Social Security and National Insurance office may contact SWSFC to verify this or may be informed that you have entered the industry.

Note 2: IT IS A CONDITION OF APPLICATION to be on the Cockle Waiting List and of holding a Cockle Licence that the details supplied above in the form of name, address, and date of application for, and/or date of holding a licence be in the public domain. The Committee may from time to time make available a list of Cockle Waiting List persons and/or licence holders for supply to the public or provide such details at the request of a member of the public at any time.

If you are not in agreement with this provision, then you should not apply for a cockle licence.

The above is consistent with the Committee's entry with the Data Protection Registrar made under the Data Protection Act 1984.

Note 3: RENEWAL OF A LICENCE IS NOT AUTOMATIC. All licence holders and people on the waiting list must apply for a licence each year in writing:-

1. Existing licence holders must apply by application form each year, which the Committee will send out before 1st April.
2. Each person on the waiting list must re-apply each year in writing so that the letter is received by the Committee during the following January or February providing their name and address in order to retain their position.
No reminders from the South Wales Sea Fisheries Committee will be sent. Failure to comply fully with this ruling will result in a loss of position to the end of the waiting list at that time.
3. New applicants may apply at any time using this form and their names will be placed on a waiting list in date order of receipt of the completed form by the office. Note 3.2 will apply at the next occasion.
